

20 NONPROFITS - PASADENA

Boys and Girls Club of Pasadena – enable children and youth in the community, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring healthy and responsible citizens.

Executive Director: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 8 of 28 female

California Alliance for Arts Education – advocates for high quality arts education through policy expertise and mobilization.

Executive Director: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 5 of 11 female

Chap Care – community health care group, including for low-income and uninsured patients.

CEO: female

Board President: female

Board members: 7 of 15 female

Elizabeth House – provide shelter, hope and support to homeless pregnant women and their children.

Executive Director: female

Chair: male

Board members: 5 of 12 female

Five Acres – strengthens families and prevents child abuse through treatment and education in community-based and residential programs.

CEO: female

Chair – female

Board members: 8 of 15 female

Friends in Deed – interfaith organization that provides support services to at-risk and homeless.

Executive Director: male

Board President: male

Board members: 7 of 13 female (includes at-large)

Fulcrum Arts – empowers artists to invent, inspire and provoke.

Executive Artistic Director: male

Board President: female

Board members: 8 of 14 female (includes at-large)

Goodwill Southern California – Turning donations and retail purchases into good jobs that have led to brighter futures for thousands of Southern Californians with disabilities and vocational challenges.

President and CEO: male

Chair: male

Board members: 5 of 20 female

Huntington Hospital – non-profit, independent hospital.

President and CEO: female

Board President: male

Board members: 11 of 25 female

Kidspace Children’s Museum – Interactive exhibition and play space.

CEO: male

Board President: male

Board members: 12 of 26 female

Leadership Pasadena – Eight-month community leadership from which graduates serve as leaders on non-profit boards or staffs.

Chair – male

Board members: 10 of 13 female

Old Pasadena Management District – property-based business improvement district coalition.

President and CEO: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 7 of 17 female

Pasadena Beautiful – restore, renew and protect Pasadena’s parks, urban forests and public spaces.

President: male

Board President: male

Board members: 15 of 16 female

Pasadena Chamber of Commerce – property-based business improvement district coalition.

President/CEO: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 12 of 31 female (includes ex-officio)

Pasadena Community Foundation – improves and enriches the lives of people through grants, services and partnerships.

President and CEO: female

Board Chair: female

Board members: 12 of 18 female

Pasadena Educational Foundation – improves and enriches the lives of people through grants, services and partnerships.

Executive Director: male

Board President: female

Board members: 23 of 32 female

Pasadena Heritage – community health care group, including for low-income and uninsured patients.

Executive Director: female

Board Chair: male

Board members: 5 of 15 female

Pasadena Unified School District – public school system.

Superintendent: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 3 of 7 female

Union Station Homeless Services – residential and programmatic resources for the homeless.

CEO: female

Board Chair: male

Board members: 9 of 22 female

YMCA – youth development, healthy living, social responsibility.

Superintendent: male

Board Chair: male

Board members: 3 of 7 female

TOTAL FEMALE CHIEF EXECUTIVES: 7 of 20 (35 percent)

TOTAL FEMALE BOARD CHAIRS: 5 of 20 (25 percent)

TOTAL FEMALE BOARD MEMBERS: 174 of 357 (49 percent)

Data acquired directly from organizational listings.